Booki. Studying Photobooks

The Department of Photography of University of the Arts in Poznan organizes an international overview of photographic books by students and graduates of art colleges. The BOOKI exhibition in the SKALA Gallery presents the latest publications of students and graduates from England, Norway, Germany, the Czech Republic and Slovakia realized in the last two years. Among the dozens of publications selected by our partners, there will be unique and often unreleased for broader audiences author's books, zines, notebooks, etc., based on photographs.

The selection of books was made by:

Victoria Rowena Browne - Kunsthøgskolen, Oslo

Paula Roush - London South Bank University

Olja Triaška Stefanović - Vysoká škola výtvarných umení, Bratislava

Vladimír Birgus - Institut tvůrčí fotografie, Slezské univerzity v Opavě

Linn Schröder - Hochschule für Angewandte Wissenschaften, Hamburg

Jarosław Klupś - University of Art in Poznań

In this year, The Department of Photography UAP has created a new publishing specialty (editorial photography), realized in the field of photography. The exhibition at the SKALA Gallery is an attempt to build an international network of partner universities to exchange experiences, collaboration of students and educators.

The exhibition will be accompanied by workshops, a meeting at the Library of the Department of Photography, as well as a discussion on the importance and functioning of paper publications and specialist education in the field of photographic publications.
